An American Bush Pilot In Guyana

Synopsis

This is an easy to read series of short stories that illustrate the life and work for an American Bush Pilot flying for a Humanitarian organization in remote and rustic Southern Guyana. Plenty of humor. Some gritty reality.

Customer Reviews

This is an incredible book - the things that this family does to help people is exceptional. This book had me ready to get on a flight and become a missionary. I love the adventure and I think you will too.

I've read this book at least 5 times - more for some chapters - and I've thoroughly enjoyed it every time. Rob has a way of capturing stories that take you there. As a family, he, our baby daughter, and I served in Guyana six months Feb 2001-Aug 2001. It was a tremendous experience and the aviation service saved many lives. I hope that he will keep writing and that you'll look for those stories about our next project in Guatemala!

No, really, it is. You should read it.
